

2020 ITE Mountain District Award: Outstanding Transportation Educator Award

Do you know an educator who has shown extraordinary creativity in teaching, taken exceptional measures to spark student interest in the transportation profession, provided unwavering encouragement for student endeavors, or shown unequaled service to the Institute of Transportation Engineers (ITE) in the past year? The Mountain District would like to recognize an outstanding transportation educator at the Mountain District Annual Meeting.

The Mountain District Outstanding Transportation Educator Award recognizes an individual who demonstrates extraordinary creativity in teaching, takes exceptional measures to spark student interest in the transportation profession, provides unwavering encouragement for student endeavors, or shows unequaled service to ITE in the past year.

If you would like to nominate an educator:

- (1) complete the nomination form,
- (2) attach a narrative, no more than two pages in length, addressing their contributions in the areas of teaching, research and ITE service (use the questions on the nomination form), and
- (3) return the nomination to the Career Guidance Chair.

The following questions are provided only as guidance for your recommendation letter.

Teaching	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- During the past year, what courses has your nominee taught?- Does your nominee have a unique teaching style worthy of mention?- Does your nominee successfully spark interest in transportation as a profession through his or her teaching activities?
Research	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- During the past year, what types of research has your nominee been involved in?- Does your nominee actively involve undergraduate/graduate students in their research?- Does your nominee provide credit and encouragement for student accomplishments?
ITE Service	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Is your nominee a current ITE member and/or the student chapter advisor at your school?- Does your nominee actively promote membership in ITE among students at your university?- During the past year, did your nominee attend any ITE conferences at the International, District, Section, or Chapter level?- During the past year, did your nominee serve in any ITE leadership roles?- Does your nominee actively participate on any ITE committees, councils, or task forces?

A panel composed the Mountain District Student and Young Members Committee will select the winner. The winner will be recognized at the Mountain District Annual Meeting and receive a plaque commemorating the award.
